

LGBTQ+ GAMBLING HARM INCLUSIVE AWARD

A full-day training offer combining LGBTQ+ inclusion with gambling harm awareness, screening, and organisational practice

FULL DAY TRAINING

FORMAT

Full-day workshop, live online or in person

DURATION

From 9:30 to 16:30

IDEAL FOR

Organisations and teams looking to build confidence, improve systems, and strengthen inclusive practice.

YOU WILL COVER

- LGBTQ+ identities and lived experience
- Inclusive and trauma-informed environments
- Gambling harm awareness
- Screening and responding
- Referral pathways and next steps

WHAT PARTICIPANTS CAN EXPECT

- Morning learning on LGBTQ+ identities, language, minority stress, barriers to access, and trauma-informed inclusion
- Practical work on inclusive environments, digital accessibility, ethical visibility, and avoiding tokenism
- Afternoon learning on gambling harms, early indicators, screening, disclosures, harm reduction, and referral pathways
- Space to reflect on organisational responsibilities and next steps within the Inclusive Award pathway

A comprehensive session for organisations ready to strengthen practice, systems, and inclusive leadership.

WHAT THEY WILL LEAVE WITH

- A joined-up understanding of LGBTQ+ inclusion and gambling harm
- Practical screening and response skills
- Ideas for embedding safer practice across your organisation
- A clear route into the Inclusive Award pathway

AWARD PATHWAY

This training sits within the Inclusive Award pathway and includes next-step guidance for organisations interested in progressing further.

To discuss which session is right for your organisation please contact our Gambling Harms Service Manager Benjamin Howard at ben.howard@switchboard.org.uk

